

Prénom : _____

Date : _____

Comparer les nombres

< ou > ou =

Comparison exercise 1: 14 vs 12. The left side shows 14 green squares (two rows of 5, one row of 4). The right side shows 12 green squares (three rows of 4). The central octagon contains the numbers 14 and 12.

Comparison exercise 2: 10 vs 12. The left side shows 10 brown squares (two rows of 5). The right side shows 12 brown squares (three rows of 4). The central octagon is empty.

Comparison exercise 3: 15 vs 18. The left side shows 15 blue squares (three rows of 5). The right side shows 18 blue squares (three rows of 6). The central octagon is empty.

Comparison exercise 4: 18 vs 14. The left side shows 18 purple squares (three rows of 6). The right side shows 14 purple squares (three rows of 4). The central octagon is empty.